

The body panel trolley is a mobile trolley with a solid construction mainly designed to store car panels. The trolley can be used to store vehicle components such as: windows, doors, bonnets, ceilings or roofs. Ideal for painting, sheet metal work, vehicle detailing and craft workshops of all types.

ADVANTAGES

Quick and easy assembly

Save time and money

Great mobility

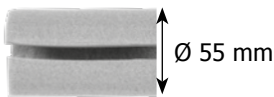

The body panel trolley can store a maximum of 5 elements.

Maximum load
Tare weight
Packed weight

80 kg
20 kg
23 kg

1 Soft protections

In order to avoid any damage to the stored element, the sharp edges are protected with corks and the arms and the trolley frame are also covered with a soft and flexible protection.

2 Plugs on sharp edges

3 Locking pin

4 Width-adjustable frame from 70 to 100 cm

5 4 swivel rubber wheels Ø125mm, 2 of which have brakes for easy mobility

6 Large knobs for easy adjustment of arms position

7 Six pairs of arms available

